

I like the sharing activities in the session

Please include more talk on laboratory learning and teaching skills

This talk is very important to me as lecturer, especially during this pandemic where i need to re-strategize my online teaching and learning.

good intention from CAES for staff to be more receptive to CAES training.

Yes, this session is very helpful. because we are working in the university. We need to enhance our learning attitude and our knowledge.

If possible to have longer period including workshop. Thank very good

Got many good information especially related to resources from CAES's website

As Salam. I'm a new teaching staff. At first, I thought this session was a sharing session on a teaching method. However, it is a good generic sharing for me to access on the previous talks under CAES which offer range of talks with regards to improvement in teaching and others.

overall ok thanks

Good sharing

Maybe can get some lecturers to share their experiences during this remote teaching period.

good session

Not only on the talk, but very informative on CAES resources readily shared in the website. Keep up the good work!
